

World Affairs Council of the Mid-Hudson Valley

PRESENTS SPOTLIGHT on TURKEY 2012

- Study Tour: The World Affairs Council of the Mid-Hudson Valley again announces the opportunity to send educators (in a 6-12 school year) on a summer study tour to Turkey. Made possible through a generous grant from the Turkish Cultural Foundation, the fellowship will allow three teachers to participate in a study tour to Turkey in the summer of 2012. The tour will include visits to historical sites, seminars, and meetings with Turkish educators. Selected applicants must attend a day-long professional development Workshop for Teachers on Turkey, hosted by the World Affairs Council. Preference will be given to teachers who can demonstrate their commitment to education about Turkey and who specify how they will use the study tour experience to enhance understanding about Turkey in their classrooms and school districts.

- Cost: Each teacher will be asked to pay $600 toward the cost of the program. All other expenses, including international airfare, hotels, local travel, and most meals will be covered by the Turkish Cultural Foundation.

- Eligibility: Applicants must be currently employed full-time as a classroom humanities (history, literature, philosophy, classics and related disciplines) teacher or administrator in a 6-12 school in Dutchess, Ulster, Orange, Putnam counties, or in the vicinity thereof, and will be employed full-time as a classroom humanities teacher or administrator in a 6-12 school next year. Additional eligibility requirements are set out in the application.
